

This is a QR Code. It's quietly transforming the way information travels from one mind to another. Because OCCJ cares about dialogue between people of different backgrounds and faiths, we're constantly looking to communicate in new ways. Download a QR code reader on your smart phone, center our code block, and take a fresh new look at the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice.

FAITH | TECH FAIR AND DINNER FOLLOWING THE FINAL SESSION

Join us for the 30th Anniversary Dinner following the final session on February 17.

Fair at 4 p.m. Dinner at 6 p.m. Dinner tickets $20 each.

Call (918) 583-1361 for dinner reservations or write joaks@occjok.org.

100 West Fifth Street
LL 1030
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

NONPROFIT ORG

U.S. Postage

PAID

Tulsa, Oklahoma
Permit #2214

ARE YOU GODWIRED?

HIGH TECH + HIGH TOUCH
THE FUTURE OF INTERFAITH DIALOGUE

THE DATA STREAM OF FAITH

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 3

We live in a fractious, polarized universe. Experts will provide trends, data, and demography on religious life in contemporary America from the agitated margins to the center.

Jewish Federation of Tulsa
2021 East 71st Street

In an era of angry extremism, does dialogue still have worth and value? Can people of faith come together, face to face, to talk honestly with each other about their similarities and differences?

Peace Academy
4620 South Irvington Avenue

HIGH TOUCH DIALOGUE FOR TODAY

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 10

HIGH TECH GLOBAL DIALOGUE

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 17

The brave new world of digital connectivity has now arrived. Can a photon express the love of God? Can a glowing screen be a place of holiness and shared experience?

Boston Avenue United Methodist
1301 South Boston Avenue

Our last session on February 17 will be followed by a Faith | Tech Fair, and our 30th Anniversary Dinner. Call for reservations. More info in the QR code below.

www.occjok.org