The Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice is a human relations organization solely dedicated to achieving respect and understanding for all people through education, advocacy, and dialogue. Our vision is to eliminate bias, bigotry, and racism in our state, in our generation. We believe that every person has the power to change the world around them.

Our programs reach a broad range of youth and adults and are focused on recognizing and celebrating both our differences and our shared humanity. Our programs are a strong thread in the fabric of Oklahoma, weaving through the decades, touching and changing thousands of lives, making our city and state a better place to live.

The Our Generation Essay Contest challenges young Oklahomans to envision a state without bias, bigotry, discrimination, and oppression. How would our state look and our lives change if all people were treated equitably?
