

ANYTOWN LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY, STILLWATER
JULY 14-20, 2019

Incoming high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors are invited to apply for the 2019 session of Anytown Leadership Institute. OCCJ is proud to offer this award-winning, human relations training that promotes self-confidence, inclusion and leadership on the campus of Oklahoma State University-Stillwater.

EMPOWERING TOMORROW'S LEADERS.

Anytown Leadership Institute is a leadership training for incoming high school sophomores, juniors and seniors. Anytown takes place at OSU-Stillwater and delegates stay in campus dormitories during the program.

At Anytown, delegates build an inclusive community based on mutual respect and understanding. Delegates of diverse backgrounds have an opportunity to meet people whom they would not otherwise meet, and they often develop lifelong friendships and connections.

During the program, delegates participate in a variety of workshops and activities that develop their awareness and skills to lead in a diverse society. In a respectful environment and guided by experienced staff, delegates have the opportunity to discuss topics such as discrimination and stereotypes. Students also engage in action-planning for taking leadership on issues of inclusion and justice.

Over one thousand young leaders have graduated from Anytown Leadership Institute since 1994. Anytown graduates represent a wide array of careers, including the arts, business, education, journalism, law, medicine, military service, ministry, public service, scientific research, and social work.

ANYTOWN EXPERIENCE

Anytown covers serious topics in a supportive atmosphere where delegates make new friends, gain self-confidence and become stronger leaders.

Anytown also features team-building activities, discussion groups, recreational time, and a talent show.

ANYTOWN WORKSHOPS

- Leadership skills
- Interpersonal communication skills
